

DANUBE CONFERENCE 2023

ETHICS, AI and Higher Education Management

Two days of new perspectives ideas and knowledge

November 9 – November 10,2023

Conference room building V1

1.day – November 9

Panel 1
Ethics OECD
	Zuzana Stožická, CVTI SR	Research integrity and the ethics of scholarly communication
13:15 – 14:30	Eduard Baumöhl, EUBA	Academic integrity and publishing practices in Slovakia
	Miruna Mazurencu-Marinescu Pele, Bucharest University of Economics Studies	The Expanding Role of AI in Higher Education Management: Navigating Ethical Frontiers
14:45 – 15:45	Ágnes Tóth, Budapest Metropolitan University	A Double-Edged Sword in Higher Education
Panel 2
AI as a challenge for HE management
16:00- 17:00	Oliver Vettori, Vienna University of Economics and Business	Preparing our graduates for an AI – diffused world
	Troy Wiwczarowski, University of Debrecen	Immediate Challenges of AI for Higher Education
	Mirjana Pejić Bach, University of Zagreb	TBA
18:00 – 19:00
Presentation of the Slovak National Gallery
Conference Dinner for Speakers

2.day – November 10

9:00 – 10:00	Senad Bećirović, FH Burgenland	The impact of AI on Digital transformation of higher education: challenges and opportunities
Session 1
10:00- 11:15	Natalie Rupp, Institute of Business Analytics	Transforming Higher Education: Applications of ChatGPT in Teaching, Research and Administration
	Witold Nowiński, WSB Merito University in Poznan	Acceptance of ChatGPT for teaching related activities among academic community
	Jozef Štefčík, EUBA	Disruptions Caused by AI in the Language Industry and Education
Session 2
11:30 – 12:15	Sudipta Sarangi, Virginia Tech	ChatGPT plays the Treasures of Game Theory
	Alexandra Lavinina Horobet, Bucharest University of Economic Studies	Research ethics challenges in an evolving publication landscape
	Matej Bilík, OECD online	TBA